

Dance Connection Palo Alto Ballet Company
Committees 2012

Costume Committee: Volunteers need not have vast sewing experience, but must be willing to pick up a needle and thread. Jobs can be shared between skill levels.

- Mend, Wash, and Care for Ballet Company Costumes
- Help bring costumes to and from the performance venues.
- Work with Artistic Direction & Choreographers to create, purchase, and/or design costumes

Publicity Committee: Volunteers should have basic computer skills and have an ability to think outside the box.

- Work with Artistic Direction to promote Dance Connection Palo Alto Ballet Company via internet, newspapers, and/or flyers.

Fundraising Committee: Volunteers will work together to develop creative ways to support the Ballet Company.

- Ballet Boutique – selling ballet related items in the lobby prior to Ballet Company performances
 - Flower Sales – selling flowers presented to dancers during Ballet Company performances
 - Dancer Grams – selling notes presented to dancers during Ballet Company performances
- Solicit Donations to help pay for various Ballet Company expenditures.

Community Outreach: Volunteers need to have relationships with community schools and businesses; must work closely with Artistic Direction, Publicity Committee, and Fundraising Committee's to give the dancers additional opportunities to share dance in the community.

- Develop small performance opportunities at non-theatre type venues: schools, hospitals, outdoor festivals, etc.
